

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

GT Equipment Technologies, Inc.

v.

Civil No. 05-cv-229-JM

Nu Vacuum Systems, Inc.

O R D E R

Defendant has defaulted. Plaintiff is entitled to judgment and I find and award the following damages based upon the evidence presented at the damages hearing:

- |             |   |
|-------------|---|
| $32,340.00 | The remainder of the advance payment after deducting the cost of the two (2) delivered chambers ($124,000.00 minus $91,660.00).             |
| $ 3,000.00 | The cost to rework the defective top chamber flange on the first chamber. Exhibit 2.  |
| $13,989.00 | The cost to remove and replace incorrectly positioned electrode ports on the second chamber. Exhibit 3.                                       |
| $13,989.00 | The anticipated cost to remove and replace the electrode ports on the first chamber.  |
| $ 1,000.00 | Transportation costs for work on both chambers.   |
| $ 1,200.00 | Cost incurred for additional inspection of the chambers.  |
| $ 2,400.00 | Cost for time spent finding and negotiating with other suppliers to make up for Nu Vacuum's failure to provide additional chambers and bases. |

$ 800.00	Cost for time spent finding and negotiating with other suppliers for bases that Nu Vacuum was supposed to supply along with the two chambers.
$ 1,600.00	Administrative cost for time incurred by Jim Bosco, Dick LeCompt and Karl Pexider arranging repairs and expediting delivery of the late delivered and defective chambers.
$24,000.00	Cost of overtime paid to GT shop employees for work towards meeting contractual shipment obligations to clients, as a result of Nu Vacuum's failure to provide chambers and bases as contracted.

$94,318.00      Total

In addition, plaintiff is awarded legal fees of $2,607.50 and legal expenses of $394.93. Judgment is entered in the total amount of $97,320.43.

SO ORDERED.
